The Homestead's three championship courses, designed by William S. Flynn, Donald Ross and Robert Trent Jones, Sr., are a tribute to the game.

The Cascades course has consistently been ranked among Golf Digest's and Golf Magazine's top fifty golf courses. Designed by William S. Flynn, this course is renowned as the finest mountain course in America and as one of the best golf courses in Virginia. Designed in 1923, The Cascades has hosted seven USGA Championships and has also been the site of such prestigious PGA events as the 1995 and 1996 Senior PGA TOUR Shoot-Out Championships.

The Lower Cascades was designed by Robert Trent Jones, Sr. in 1963. The Lower Cascades features Jones' trademark runway tee boxes and wide-open fairways. Jones also included severe green contouring with exaggerated breaks, and strategically placed bunkers for a competitive golf game. The Lower Cascades has hosted the U.S. Men's Amateur qualifying rounds.

The Old Course enjoys the distinction of having the oldest first tee in continuous use in the U.S. In 1892 it was part of a six-hole layout. By 1901 the golf course had been enlarged to 18 holes and 6,000 yards, and in 1913 the legendary Donald Ross provided a professional design that continues to challenge golfers on this championship golf course in Virginia. And, as the game of golf has evolved over time, so has The Old Course, with updates by William S. Flynn in 1925, and under the direction of Rees Jones, a more than one-million-dollar redesign has been performed on the Old Course, to preserve the essential flair and enhance the traditionally favorite characteristics of this Virginia golf favorite.

ACCOMMODATIONS

The Homestead offers 482 luxury guestrooms and suites. The hotel is beautifully appointed with lavish fabrics of blended cotton and silk in designs of floral prints, checks, stripes and solids. Each of the luxury guestrooms features a private bath where modern corian sinks, lighting and heating blend with traditional porcelain and wooden window shutters which help enhance the look of this historic Virginia hotel. In-room amenities include: cable TV, lodgenet with movies and video games, voicemail, in-room internet capabilities and daily maid service.
